

Sunderland Sings

Year 6 took part in a collective concert at the Sunderland Empire. Schools from across the region gathered together to sing songs with a live band on stage.

This year, the theme was the women's world cup so the songs reflected work from around the world sang by strong female singers.

The children all had a blast, sang confidently and were fantastic representatives for Grangetown Primary!

